

SEVENTY-NINE REVIEW

In Memory of and Dedication to

Danny Siegel
1961-1978

Happy-go-lucky and cheerful,
Ambitious and full of life, too,
In spite of the illness he had
He never appeared to be blue.

Not once did he ever complain,
But was always full of fun,
He proved to be such a blessing
I'm proud that he was my son.

Ruth Siegel (Mother)

SONGS IN THE KEY OF LIFE

The Football Homecoming Queens Court included the homecoming representatives: Jeff and Darlene and Kelly and Jeff. The senior representatives included Brenda Smith and the junior Mrs. and Mr. Morgan. The sophomore representatives were Laura Greer and Rick Belson. The juniors and Bill Morgan were sophomore representatives. Laura Greer and Rick Belson represented the juniors.

Football Homecoming

The best Basketball Homecoming had for their representatives Tracy Burkhardt and Eric Bertalan. Keith Smith and John Stettin were the only two seniors selected were Doug Lee and Roger Baskin who were the only two juniors. The girls who were selected other seniors were Pat Morgan and Kris Peterson. So the representatives of the school were the seniors and juniors Barry

I would like to express my thanks to everyone who helped in the production of our yearbook. To
Miss Bryant who did the elementary section
Mrs. Zawacki who offered her services as photographer
Mr. Calbetzer for special services.
Mr. St. John who helped take pictures when we otherwise wouldn't have had any and processed them
Herff Jones who publishes our yearbook and their representative Mr. Carroll who always helped us along with our progress and problems
Powell Studios for their free film and processing and photographers.
Miss Kowalsky who made sure that we made our deadlines and kept us at it when we didn't know what to do and wanted to give up.
The Yearbook Staff for all their time and efforts and cooperation.

Thanks, again,
Appreciatively,
Yearbook Editor
Kaiko Hannibal
